WALKED FROM CREVE COEUR. John Giger's Experience Will Cost Him His Feet.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Rural letter carriers have been appointed in Missouri to begin service March 24, as follows:
Sheridan—John A. Reddick, Taylor R. Gould and Arthur G. Williams, carriers;
Robert Crawford, Lynn R. Gould and William E. Williams, substitutes,
Paris—William E, Hedden, James H. Sterrett and William E, Licy B. Sterrett and Ruth H. Blerly substitutes, John Giger of No. 2529 Carroll street is a patient at the City Hospital with both feet so badly frozen that amputation will be necessary to save his life.

Giger went to Creve Coeur Lake last week to secure work cutting ice. When he arrived there he was told work would not be commenced until Monday. The snow-storm delayed the work, and as Giger's money had given out he was compelled to take shelter in a log hut in the woods.

He spent Monday night there with little or no protection from the howling storm. Tuesday morning he was hardly able to hobble over to the lake in search of work. He was told that there was no work for him. After vainily endeavoring to borrow car fare, Giger started to walk the twenty miles into the city, where he had friends who would help him. He stumbled into the Five-Mile House salbon utterly unable to move another step, his feet being in a fearful condition.

Stimulants were freely administered to the unfortunate man, and an ambulance was summoned, which took him to the City Hospital. MEPUHLIC SPECIAL.

SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Traders who have been on the long side were the principal sellers of wheat in the local market. At the opening there was some show of strength on light local receipts and an advance in Paris prices. Other European markets were dult, and there was practically no outside demand. Conditions in Minneapolis and Duluth were suddenly reversed. The movement to the Northwest was almost as great as on the corresponding day last year, and the demand for wheat and flour in that section was little better than nominal. Some of the shorts were nervous over the weather outlook early in the session, but the general opinion seemed to be that the winter crop was well protetd by snow. Th predicted Armour movement did not materialize, and in the closing hour Chicago led the selling, which resulted in a sharp decline in active futures. Lack of cars kept the cash market at a

Receipts of produce were again moderate and prices of fruits and vegetables were stendy to higher.
